

As a resident of Indiana, have benefited from Indiana's new law allowing me to put my household on "no call" lists. The result has been a welcomed and dramatic reduction in unwanted sales phone calls during the precious few hours of family time we have in the evening. Please DO NOT create a national standard for this type of activity that reduces the protection my family and I currently enjoy.